

CHRISTMAS DAY IN CALUMET—BRINGING THE CRUSHED BODIES HOME

(Copyright, 1913, by the Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

Crowd of sympathizers surrounding a Calumet house where three bodies of victims, a mother and two children, are being carried in.

Photographed especially for The Day Book by our staff photographer.

NELSON AFTER EDDIE FOY

Eddie Foy, known far and wide as a funmaker, has run afoul of State Factory Inspector Oscar F. Nelson for exhibiting his troupe of seven children at the Majestic Theater.

Nelson did some tall investigating and found that five of the seven children were under age. Charges have been filed against Foy and Abe

Jacobs, stage manager of the theater.

The cases will be heard before Judge Newcomer.

Reported that 300,000 Europeans are buying tickets to visit Southern California via Panama canal. The California real estate dealer makes a lively reporter, all right.